He also actively participated in all aspects of the club – gymkhana (or SOLO), rally, crewmember, worker, and even tried his hand racing a Lotus Super 7. Jack was a true automobile enthusiast to the extreme. He never had a negative thing to say about anybody or anything. He was always there to lend a hand, give a shoulder to lean on or just have a kind word to say. His smiling face and inspiring comments could always be found warming the track, even on a cold and rainy day.
